Pastor's Thoughts

Fall is in the air. I am almost ready for a freeze, because my allergies are bad this time of year. But still, I love fall. We all have favorite things from every season. This is good, because God made this world for us to enjoy.

Psalm 91 says, "You who live in the Shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, will say to the Lord, 'My refuge and my fortress; my God whom I trust.'" We see our Lord has taken care of everything for us. Our trust is to be in our Lord. God will watch out for each of us. God gives us the seasons to help us see, touch, and love the beauty he created.

Each season gives us the opportunity to glimpse God in a different light. God is in all the goodness of each season. In winter, we see the beauty of quilts and sweaters, as well as snow covered pastures and icy ponds. Spring gives us new growth and young life to see. With summer we have the warmth of the sun and the long evenings to remind us of God's creation as we trust God to see us through.

We all have favorite times of the year, but we need to remember that God is in every season. We can trust in him because he always shelters us, in every season of the year and in every season of our lives.

Pastor Donna
