Prayer of Dedication

Saving Lord, in celebration of their deliverance from slavery, the Hebrew people offered you their worship and their praise. Let the offering we bring before you this day be a sign of our celebration of your saving love and your never-failing grace. Just as Passover stands as a perpetual observance of your love and care, so may our weekly offering be a perpetual observance of your love in our lives. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith:

We believe in God who saved us, not because of good things we have done, but because of God's mercy. God saved us by the washing of rebirth, and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom God poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior; so that justified by his grace, we might become heirs with the hope of eternal life. This is a trustworthy saying.

Hymn 363 vs 1 & 2

Near to the Heart of God

Benediction

Passing of the Peace

One: Go forth in peace to walk in the way of life.

All: We go in the name of the Lord.

please stand as you are able*

Psalm 149

Sing to the Lord a new song, his praise in the assembly of his faithful people.

² Let Israel rejoice in their Maker; let the people of Zion be glad in their King.

³ Let them praise his name with dancing,
and make music to him with timbrel and harp.

⁴ For the Lord takes delight in his people; he crowns the humble with victory.

⁵ Let his faithful people rejoice in this honor and sing for joy on their beds.

⁶ May the praise of God be in their mouths

and a double-edged sword in their hands,

⁷ to inflict vengeance on the nations, and punishment on the peoples,

⁸ to bind their kings with fetters, their nobles with shackles of iron,

⁹ to carry out the sentence written against them—

this is the glory of all his faithful people.

Praise the Lord.

Exodus 12:1-14

¹² The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, ² “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. ³ Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household. ⁴ If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. ⁵ The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. ⁶ Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. ⁷ Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs. ⁸ That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. ⁹ Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. ¹⁰ Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. ¹¹ This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the Lord's Passover. ¹² “On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the Lord. ¹³ The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

¹⁴ “This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord—a lasting ordinance.
