Pastor's Thoughts

My Halloween decorations are out for the season. I have picked up two new items for my Trunk or Treat display. I enjoy the time at Trunk or Treat, and I try to put something new in the display each year. I think Fred and Freda are dressed and ready. (They are skeletons.) I don't like things to be too scary so the kids are able to touch them.

October can be a challenge as it begins to get colder and the days get shorter. We can't be outside as much, and we look for ways to connect with people while keeping warm. Life changes as we stay in more. But one thing we can all do is pray for each other. Make a list of 10-12 people, and pray for 2-3 each day. Send a note or text to let them know that you care. We are called to pray for, talk with, and care for each other as God cares for us.

Christ loves you no matter the weather, and the church is open even when it is cold outside. I am around, or you can call to talk with me from the comfort of your home. I pray that we each feel the prayers of others, and that the love we have is spread through all the world.
