Pastor's Thoughts

October is here. I am kind of surprised at this. It feels like I am behind, but I am not. I am not ready for the cold and the idea of being inside more. But there is in fun spending more time inside with others.

October is a time of being together for a potluck, TUF Team, Bible Study, and even worship. We will also do Trunk or Treat in front of the old fire station and swimming pool. I am already looking at ways to decorate the pickup for that evening. It is fun to be out in the community during this time, to see the kids and let them know we are part of their community. We never have to be alone.

We are people called to serve in any way possible. We can talk to others, invite others to church, and pray for each other. It doesn't always take getting out in the cold, but it does take the willingness to share our faith and love with all we meet.

October is a month to come together and love the world. Each one is invited to share the message of God's love with the world.
