Pastor's Thoughts

It is cold as I write this. I spent quite a bit of time in October trying to find my winter clothes. I found some, but I am still looking for others. Through the years I have had one office where I needed sweaters and other offices where I did not. I have kept many different articles of clothing so when I need them, I will have them.

We can also do this with thankful thoughts. Often, these thoughts are put away in the back of our hearts or minds until something reminds us of them. Then they make us smile and feel good, just like a warm, cozy sweater. It might be the thought of a friend or family member who is no longer with us. Those thoughts still warm us and, at times, make us laugh. It might also be thankfulness for times of being together. Most of us enjoy the times we can be with family for a meal or activity. It is good to be close to each other and remember how much we love each other.

Whether we need a sweater to keep us warm, or we need a warm memory, be thankful for those loved ones God has provided. Be thankful that sometimes, you might be the person providing a warm memory for others. Give thanks to our God.
